Mary and the Sisters of St. Joseph worked for Jesus.

CREATION: God made me with Free Will.
God made all creation. God made humans – we are a special creation.

MISSIONS: At the Last Supper, Jesus showed us how to serve others. We need to serve others.

Assessment: Mary MacKillop

Main Idea:
Mary and the Sisters of St. Joseph taught in many different places in Australia.
Mary and the Sisters of St. Joseph worked for Jesus.

We hope that the children during this unit will:
• Explore and become familiar with the work of Mary MacKillop as teacher and Sister of St. Joseph.
• Develop a devotion to St Mary of the Cross MacKillop.

Things your child will learn:
• Mary MacKillop is Australia’s first saint.
• Mary MacKillop had a vision to help educate the poor.
• Mary MacKillop, with the Sisters of St. Joseph, established schools throughout Australia.
• The Sisters of St. Joseph still help people around the world today.

Things your child will do to show what they have learnt:
• Identify and describe where and how Mary MacKillop and the Sisters of St. Joseph worked for Jesus.
• Reflect on one of Mary MacKillop’s sayings and relate its message to their own life.
• Write a letter to their family telling them what it is like to be carrying out and continuing the work of Mary MacKillop.
• Participate in a Mary MacKillop reflection day.
