REMINDER TO ALL NEW FAMILIES ABOUT TRAFFIC / PARKING PROTOCOLS

During morning drop off we have noticed some families parking in zones that are not authorised. Can you please ensure that you are:

1. Not parking in the Drop Off Zone or blocking the area with your vehicle.
2. All families who are parking onsite, will need to reverse park their car into the car space.
3. Do not leave any children in the car while they are not supervised.
4. This is a one way drive through, the Sandalwood Ave exit must be used when exiting the car park.
5. Please do not block the driveway of Sandalwood Ave to drop off your child/ren
6. Cana car park is only open in the morning to drop off your child/ren. When picking up your child/ren at the end of day please park your car around allocated car park spaces around the outside of the school. We ask that you please be respectful to the neighbors and pay attention to street signs.
7. No blocking of school crossing when dropping off children, in particular back of school on Sandalwood Drive
8. Please use the roundabout for ALL U-turns and follow the correct safety traffic rules.

We need to ensure this area is free flowing for all vehicles and for families to walk safely into the school. Thank you to all families for your continued support.

How free online parenting support helps families in schools

In a complex, changing world with anxiety rising among school-age children, school leaders know firsthand the everyday challenges parents and carers face raising calm, resilient and happy children. They also know how this can significantly affect school environments.

Ideally, children would be able to make friends easily, resolve disputes without fights, follow directions, feel confident tackling challenges, listen well and plan for things like homework. But it can be hard for parents to know where to turn to get trusted, evidence-based support.

Now, parents and carers can get proven support with free access to online parenting courses developed in Australia by the Triple P – Positive Parenting Program®, thanks to funding from the Australian Government Department of Health and Aged Care.

In addition to strengthening the bonds between home and school, the programs can reinforce your school's commitment to creating a caring environment for students to learn, grow and thrive.

What does this mean for children and families at your school?

Triple P's free online programs help parents and carers to:

- Feel more confident in their parenting skills
- Tackle problems before they grow
- Promote children's resilience, self-regulation, problem-solving and social skills
- Encourage children to express and cope with emotions in healthy ways
- Build strong relationships with their children

Families can easily choose a program course that's right for them, whether it's navigating common challenges during childhood, helping children who often feel anxious or preparing for pre-teen and teen years. Plus, an upcoming program will provide positive parenting strategies for those going through separation or divorce.

How do the programs help schools?

As anxiety and difficult behaviours become more prevalent in school-age children, Triple P can contribute to the solution. It empowers parents and carers with helpful strategies and can also be used in educational settings to:

- Reduce teacher stress
- Increase prosocial behaviour
- Improve numeracy and literacy levels in primary years
- Improve attendance in secondary schools
- Give teachers more confidence responding to difficult student behaviour

Triple P online programs are easy to use and flexible for any family, backed by over four decades of ongoing research and over 125,000 families in Australia have already joined.

We encourage you to share information about Triple P's free online programs with other school leaders, parents, carers, teachers and guidance counsellors.

Recommending the programs can have a positive ripple effect on your school community.

For more information about how Triple P can continue to support families in schools, please get in touch with us at contact@triplep.net

All free online programs can be accessed at www.triplep-parenting.net.au

Message from Fr. Maurie

Hello everyone

Last week we were acknowledging the 'actual' beginning of the year, perhaps with some regret that the easier-going mood of January was passing. Now the routines of life have really 'kicked in', as they say. Our Schools and Colleges have put in two weeks already.

I've always noticed that February may be the busiest month in Parish life: everything gets going again, including those events that may be sometime off in the future, but "let's start talking about them so that we're not caught out later!"

So many positive comments have come in about our 'commissioning' of our Ministry Teams for Holy Communion to those in Aged Care/Nursing Homes and their private homes during Masses last weekend. They do this on our behalf, as I was saying at the Masses: they extend our Parish community life to the residents as well as share the Sacrament through their presence and care.

Remember that I drew attention to our 'Anointing Mass' on Friday 23rd February in Sacred Heart church at 10.30 followed by tea/coffee and chat. Come along all who would like to benefit from those Sacraments. If anyone needs assistance in getting to the church, contact the Parish Office and we'll arrange for that.

Our Baptism Team will present their Ministry at our Masses this weekend, urgently wanting to build up the numbers in that Ministry. It is an essential part of Parish life – welcoming, supporting, guiding families as they ask for Baptism for their children, for them to be initiated into the life of Christ and the life of the Church. There are several different roles in the Ministry: this might be where you can step forward. This weekend there will be the opportunity to indicate your expression of interest, after which a Team member will discuss that with you.

During the week our Parish Advisory Group met and began to identify some projects we could undertake during the year. Our Parish Finance Committee will meet during the coming week – one task being the finalisation of our Annual Financial Statement which will be forwarded to Archdiocese headquarters (the Archdiocese's financial year is 1st January-31st December).

The first of our School Masses is celebrated on Friday. The round of meetings of our Primary School Principals and Religious Education leaders and of the Principals of our Colleges gathered for the first time this week.

The year is under way. And with a rush when you notice that in just a few days the Season of Lent begins with Ash Wednesday (14th February)! It seems to be very early this year, doesn't it? Our Parish Masses on Ash Wednesday will be at 7.30am and 7.00pm at Sacred Heart; at 7.00pm at Emmaus. Our young people will gather in Mass and other forms of prayer at various time of the day, too, sharing in the Ashes.

The Ashes are that symbol that 'things change'. What used to be comes to an end – such as the ways in our lives that don't show up the life of Christ in us but something else instead. With those non-Christ parts of our lives brought to an end in Lent, there's room to come more alive with the life of Jesus – which we will celebrate in Holy Week and Easter (30-31 March).

Lent will call us to take a good look at ourselves. I like very much this quote that I came across in an article about something else – it fits Lent so well:

The real question is whether the 'brighter future' is really always so distant. What if, on the contrary, it has been here for a long time already, and only our own blindness and weakness have prevented us from seeing it around us and within us, and kept us from developing it? (Vaclav Havel, later President of Czechoslovakia, The Power of the Powerless, 1978)

What a great expression of what we will be trying to do through Lent! For 'we already share in the life of God; what that can become we do not know yet' as St John writes in his Letters.

Pope Francis has written quite practically about building strategies for this renewal into our lives. For example on 'fasting', one of those customary practices during Lent along with prayer and good works:

FASTING IN LENT

Fast from hurting words and say kind words.

Fast from sadness and be filled with gratitude.

Fast from anger and be filled with patience.

Fast from pessimism and be filled with hope.

Fast from worries and trust in God.

Fast from complaints and contemplate simplicity.

Fast from pressures and be prayerful.

Fast from bitterness and fill your heart with joy.

Fast from selfishness and be compassionate to others.

Fast from grudges and be reconciled.

Fast from words and be silent so you can listen.

(Pope Francis based on a Latin prayer)

Project Compassion boxes are available in the foyers this weekend to take home for your donations throughout Lent: they form part of the 'good works' part of the Season.

An extra prayer opportunity during Lent will be 'Stations of the Cross' on Fridays in Sacred Heart church at 7.15pm

Another 'first activity' for the year is our Fair Committee's hosting their first sausage sizzle of the year at Bunnings (Watergardens) this Sunday (11th), 9am-4pm. What a huge effort this Ministry group put in throughout each year!! Last year's proceeds of $7,000 will go to our Parish Primary Schools (Sacred Heart, Emmaus, Cana) when they choose their projects which won't be covered by school fees and grants. The Team do a great sausage – go along and enjoy just outside Bunnings main entrance.

Start considering the Season of Lent, I suggest, so that we 'hit the ground running as soon as it begins. Later in the Season we will gather in Lent Prayer and Reconciliation to call for the renewal the Season and Easter are all about – Wednesday 20th March at 7.30pm at Emmaus, Thursday 21st March at 7.30pm at Sacred Heart.

For now: have a good year, have a good Lent!!

Best wishes and blessings

Maurie Cooney

The safety of each child at Cana is of the utmost importance. It is our duty of care to ensure each child feels safe within all environments including school, home, and the community.

To comply with the Ministerial Order No. 1359 – Implementing the Child Safe Standards, Cana is required to meet the Child Safe Standards 1-11. Below is an outline of each Child Safe standard. More information on each standard can be found here: The 11 Child Safe Standards

Standard 1: To establish a culturally safe environment in which the diverse and unique identities and experiences of Aboriginal children and young people are respected and valued.

Standard 2: Child safety and wellbeing are embedded in organisational leadership, governance, and culture.

Standard 3: Children and young people are empowered about their rights, participate in decisions affecting them and are taken seriously.

Standard 4: Families and communities are informed and involved in promoting child safety and wellbeing.

Standard 5: Equity is upheld, and diverse needs respected in policy and practice.

Standard 6: People working with children and young people are suitable and supported to reflect child safety and wellbeing values in practice.

Standard 7: Processes for complaints and concerns are child focused.

Standard 8: Staff and volunteers are equipped with the knowledge, skills, and awareness to keep children and young people safe through ongoing education and training.

Standard 9: Physical and online environments promote safety and wellbeing while minimising the opportunity for children and young people to be harmed.

Standard 10: Implementation of the Child Safe Standards is regularly reviewed and improved.

Standard 11: Policies and procedures document how the school is safe for children and young people.

In future editions of the newsletter, each Child Safe Standard will be explored in further detail with examples of how it is implemented at Cana.

Parents/Families,

Parents we all need to be in partnership and to always be respectful of each other during all interactions - face to face or on social media. We are role models for our children and need to be reflective of our communications and actions.
